NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY LOCAL TAXPAYERS' GROUP

Arlington Taxpayers' Association Is Organized — Board of Officers Comprises Well-Known Men — Each Precinct To Have Member On Board of Directors — New Organization One of Many In State — Purpose Is To Encourage Interest In Governmental Activities — Task Facing Group

Following a series of meetings, the newly-organized Arlington Taxpayers' association has elected a board of officers. The new officials are:

Harold L. Frost, president; Loren W. Marsh, vice-president; Frank E. Kenney, treasurer; Chester R. Whitman, secretary; Percy A. Goodale, Frederick W. Hill and William C. Drouet, delegates-at-large.

In addition to these officers a board of fourteen additional directors will be appointed with one member representing each precinct of the Town. The object of the new organization is to foster, encourage and promote a non-partisan interest in and a study of the business and fiscal activities of the Federal, State, County and Municipal government agencies.

As such activities may affect the taxpayers of the Town of Arlington it is hoped that the Taxpayers' association will be given general support in its work. Any real estate taxpayer to the Town of Arlington and his or her representatives are eligible to membership in this association. The price of membership fee is $1.00 per fiscal year or any part thereof.

Application blanks may be obtained at the office of the Secretary, Chester R. Whitman, on Massachusetts avenue, and later of precinct representatives.

The following communication costs, and second, legislation from the executive committee of the Local Taxpayers' Association of Massachusetts sent to the Arlington association as well as other organizations throughout the State will give an idea of the task

Looking Inside

The El wants a loop at the Centre.

Does that mean more service from Cambridge to the Centre and the same as now from the Cambridge line to the Heights.

Or does it mean less cars from the Centre to the Heights with perhaps a change at that point. If it does, every man and woman living beyond the Centre will be opposed, and that's half the town.

Before we go one step further, even to consider where the loop shall be, why not get the El to state in writing, and signed by all the Trustees, just what they are going to do about service to the Centre and beyond the Centre, when and if.

Two can play at "boss" tradin'.

Arlington High Plays Medford Team Tonight

The Arlington High basketball team has a hard game tonight when it tackles Medford High in the Arlington Gym. Arlington has the edge on wins this year with three out of five games while Medford has failed to be on the right side in as many starts.

Medford has never won a basketball game on an Arlington court and it is not expected that they will break that jinx tonight. Medford is supporting, the worst basketball team in many years, despite the fact that it has held Salem and Fitchburg to close scores.

Wright, Serreto, Hendrick, Clarke, and Crovo will probably be the starting lineup with Hamilton, Greeley and Adams ready to fill in. Hamilton is especially well fitted to be thrown into the fray with the experience he received in the Belmont game when he was put in at a crucial moment and he scored two baskets to win the game for Arlington.

The set-back which Chelsea handed Arlington put the boys on a fine edge and with the hard work of Coach Johnson a great victory is expected tonight for the Red and Gray basketballers.

Improvement Association Is Organized

Two resolutions were adopted by the new East Arlington Improvement association which met in the Junior High East auditorium last Wednesday evening. The group met as the Menotomy Improvement association as a permanent one.

One of the resolutions would reduce the number of Town meeting members to three from each precinct instead of eighteen as is the case at present.

The second asks that all new construction in the Town be done by local laborers. Both resolutions will be drafted into the Town Warrant, it is expected.

Town Treasurer Charles A. Hardy, Tax Collector Edward A. Bailey, Selectmen Leonard Collins and Thomas Kennedy, former town official spoke at the meeting. P. Joseph McManus acted as temporary chairman while William J. Foohey is temporary secretary. No officers have been elected as yet but it is felt that much headway was made at last Wednesday's meeting. The next meeting takes place on Wednesday, February 1, and all taxpayers are invited.

$2,000 PER MONTH NEEDED FOR WELFARE

To the Editor:
May I call attention of the citizens of Arlington to the serious situation facing the Unemployment Relief Fund Committee.

The sum of $2,000 per month is needed to carry on the Welfare Work of the community during the winter months. Desperate cases are facing Mrs. Perry (in charge of the Welfare Council) every day at the office and we cannot allow them to be turned away unaided.

There surely must be 2000 citizens in Arlington who will give at least one dollar per month (that means only twenty-five cents a week) to feed hungry children and save homes.

Can we count on you to help? Will you be one of these two thousand?

Make your contributions to Mr. John A. Bishop, Treasurer of the Menotomy Trust Company.

Remember every penny of your dollar goes into service. There is no overhead expense.

Yours for the Welfare of Arlington,
JOHN NICOL MARK,
Chairman of the Arlington Unemployment Relief Committee.

ARLINGTON KIWANIS MARK ANNIVERSARY WITH BIRTHDAY PARTY

The members of the Arlington Kiwanis Club at their weekly meeting yesterday celebrated what is known throughout "Kiwanis International" as Anniversary Week.

Paper hats and favors supplied the necessary diversion to make this meeting stand out among others as a real party, the occasion being the 18th Anniversary of Kiwanis.

Kiwanis will be 18 years old January 21, and all Clubs throughout the United States and Canada, numbering 1873 with a membership of approximately $2,500, will participate in the observance.

Each Club is made up of two leading representatives from business, professional and agricultural classification. Kiwanis as a name is a coined word. Kiwanis has come to be synonymous with accomplishment and is associated with the constructive and unselfish work being done to better conditions of life and living.

The Motto of Kiwanis, "We Build", suggests the constructive service and leadership for which the organization stands. Kiwanis is active in community development. It creates through education and promotion a higher degree of citizenship and a deeper sense for responsibility.

The Arlington Club was founded in 1925 with the following as the first board of officers: A. Allen Kimball, president; Warren A. Pierce, Jr., vice-president; Charles E. Dockrill, secretary; Francis L. Dalton, treasurer, and Richard L. Power, treasurer.

The first board of directors comprised Harvey H. Bacon, Walter Chamberlain, Alfred B. Graft, Harry H. Patterson, L. Brooks Saville, and Norman R. Willard. All past-presidents of the club are very well-known in Arlington. They are:

A. Allen Kimball, 1925-6; John Loud, 1927; L. Brooks Saville, 1928; Ray Mauger, 1929; Walter Chamberlain, 1930; John O'Leary, 1931; and Wilbert Wunderly, 1932.

Welfare Council To Elect New Officers Jan. 27

The annual meeting and election of officers of Welfare Council will take place on January 27. It is hoped that all members can be present. This is a very important meeting and all organizations represented will want to know the results of the work for 1932.

It has been customary for members of the different organizations to bring to their own meetings food stuffs such as canned goods and dry groceries, which the Welfare will turn over to needy persons. If each member will bring one article to his or her organization it will mean a great deal of good. We ask especially for canned tomatoes owing to the amount of food value contained therein. Ranny Weeks And Orchestra Here Tonight

Everything is in readiness for the second annual dance sponsored by the Arlington Pals which takes place in Robbins Memorial town hall this evening.

RANNY WEEKS

The affair promises to surpass any similar event of its kind.

Ranny Weeks and his orchestra will be the major attraction of the evening. Ranny is well-known as a radio artist and for his long engagement as guest conductor at the Metropolitan theatre in Boston. While there, the young Reading singer broke all records and his engagement was extended several weeks to take care of the popular demand for more of his songs.

Leaving Boston University where he prepared for business, Ranny decided to take up orchestra work in earnest. Since he made his decision, he has become one of the most renowned radio personalities in the country. Singing and orchestra work has proved far more important to the young artist than business and banking. He has an enviable following and receives more fan mail than any other radio artist of his age.

The Pals were successful in closing a contract for a personal appearance of the popular radio star and consider themselves fortunate to be able to present him this evening at a popular admission price. The orchestra leader has promised to be here in person for the whole evening.

Representative Denies That He Has Made Any Announcement—Would Accept Nomination If Group Demanded—Supporters Expect Him To Accept—Arthur Murray Is Candidate For Selectman—Otto V. Rose Announces Candidacy—Papers Being Circulated For Others—Lowe May Run For Office.

Although it was a widespread rumor yesterday that Representative Hollis M. Gott had entered the fight for a place on the board of selectmen this year, Representative Gott flatly denied last night that he had made any such announcement.

Representative Gott, who has been considered a possible candidate for the office ever since he was defeated last year by Leonard Collins, has not yet entered the fight. He stated last night that he had no intention to project himself into the political picture.

However, he admitted that if there should be an organized demand for his services he would consider throwing his hat into the ring. For the time being he is stepping aside. Representative Gott made it clear that he had no personal motive to enter the fight and would consider getting into the campaign only if and when his services were sought. He stated that he stood ready to serve the Town of Arlington another three years if he was asked by any large group.

Having served Arlington six years during his two terms as Selectman and having been on the Town finance committee Mr. Gott is considered by many people as a logical choice for the office and it would be no surprise to see him enter the race before the campaign closed. The remarkable showing which he made when he won a place in the House of Representatives in the State election has strengthened this belief.

While many are awaiting a definite announcement from Representative Gott, at least one other well-known local resident as come out for the office. This man is Arthur Murray of 10 Milton street.

The news of Mr. Murray's candidacy followed closely upon the announcement that William O. Hauser, present chairman of the board, whose term expires next March, would not seek re-election this year. Political "experts" have been awaiting announcement of the political picture locally and have been awaiting announcement of various candidates. The name of Mr. Murray is the first to be placed in the running.

Mr. Murray is well-known locally, having lived in Arlington for seventeen years, fourteen of which have been spent at his present address and the remainder on Marathon street. He took an important role in supporting the election of Senator Charles Warren, Representative William B. Crosby, Rod Peters for the Republican State Committee and Selectman William O. Hauser.

Besides his work in political circles in the town, he has been engaged by the Heggensen & Harris company of New York City on projects amounting to over forty million dollars. He is an auditor for the company and among the projects on which he worked are the Chicago Tribune building, the Harvard Business School and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Washington. Mr. Murray graduated from Rindge Technical in Cambridge and studied at Northeastern University in Boston.

Through his efforts he secured the appointment of John E. Collins of Park avenue, Arlington to Annapolis. Mr. Murray interviewed Secretary of the Navy Charles F. Adams and Senator David I. Walsh and made it possible for the local youth to take the physical and mental tests for Annapolis. The youth is now on the eligible list.

Announcement of other candidates for public office is expected to follow shortly.

Rose In Race
Another candidate who has taken out nomination papers is Otto V. Rose, of 5 Belmont street. Having been in business as a contractor and builder for the past seventeen years, this candidate is well-known locally. He will seek a place on the board of public works.

Mr. Rose is a member of the

ACTING VERY WISELY

The group of Arlington citizens who have organized a "Taxpayers' Association," the officers of which are named in today's Daily News have made a very wise move. Similar associations are cropping up everywhere and are serving as a most satisfactory check on government expenditures.

Now it is hoped that as many people as possible will join the new association in Arlington. Its purpose is one to be highly commended and much is expected from it.

So that our readers may become acquainted with the ideals of such associations we publish herewith an article by the Woburn Taxpayers' Association, appearing in the Woburn Daily Times. It's worth giving a thought:

"Massachusetts always has been a state in which the principle of 'home rule' has been zealously preserved. Its town meeting has been called by students of governmental science the most responsive form of representation to be found anywhere. Our belief in the 'home rule' principle remains unshaken, although it is true that its abuse by some municipalities is chiefly responsible for their present condition."

"The need for a general reduction in all public expenditures is not merely an economic theory to be preached by all and practiced only in a few isolated instances, under the moving factor of compulsion. If this principle is not voluntarily accepted now, it is only a question of time when it will force itself upon us, with attendant circumstances that will be little short of disastrous."

"A city which refuses to curtail its appropriations for next year by the measure of the revenue it may reasonably expect to collect, will find itself in a precarious position a year hence. The property it has been forced to take for non-payment of taxes represents a revenue deficit on this year's account, because of the fact that the money borrowed in anticipation of such collections has been spent. And the forfeiture of tax titles is growing larger, month by month."

"Property thus taken which cannot be sold represents a dead loss to the community. And the necessity of carrying over anticipation notes, representing uncollected taxes, into the levy of the next year—a practice technically for-bidden, but generally followed—will eventually bring the community to the point where bankers will be justified in refusing to extend further credit."

FALLING FOR FAKE SCHEMES

Never within the recollection of the present generation have as many fake schemes come to light as within the last two years. Almost every day papers in some part of the country are called upon to expose a new scheme. But, as a rule, the expose comes after the faker has gathered in the money and hied himself to other territory, where his game is still unknown. He manages to keep one jump ahead of the denouncers.

This section has come in for its share of schemes and fakers, and its citizens have contributed their share of coin to the schemers. It has never been plain why local citizens will bite at something a home-town citizen couldn't sell them in a hundred years.

Along comes a perfect stranger selling advertising space on a time-card, calendar, cook book, or some other fake scheme. He sells his space readily, in a form of advertising that usually isn't worth the paper it is printed on, pocket-the money and is on his way. And then, when the advertiser fails to get results—as he does ninety-nine times out of a hundred—he goes around declaring that "advertising doesn't pay." The fact of the matter is such schemes are not legitimate advertising, and that is the only kind that ever did or ever will pay.

There is something funny about human nature when it comes to these fake schemes. Nobody can understand why merchants and professional men will "fall for them" when they wouldn't buy a nickel's worth of space if a home-town man was doing the soliciting. But a perfect stranger comes along and they bite—hook, line and sinker. It's a problem no one has so far been able to figure out.—Slaton, Texas, Slatonite.

QUELLING THE FEAR OF THE FUTURE

Thousands of Americans have lost their savings, their investment income—but their life insurance holdings are as valuable as in the days of the boom. In many instances that all they have left. It's no wonder that the American people have shown their faith in life insurance by buying billions of dollars' worth of it while other types of investment have dropped away to almost nothing.

One of the great human fears is of possible misfortune in the future—the fear of loss of savings and earnings when age precludes the chance of a new start.

Every insurance policy helps guard against disaster in the future and in many cases, depending on the type of policy, it is a profit-returning investment for the policy-holder.

Perhaps no other humanly conceived institution has had so remarkable a record of safety and stability as has old line life insurance. Banks have failed, as have numberless industrial projects; governments have defaulted on their securities—yet losses to policyholders of legal reserve life insurance companies have been practically nil. The principal object of insurance—security under any and all conditions—has never been lost sight of.

Holds First Meeting

The Corporal William P.
Kenibbs Auxiliary 67, U. S. W. V., held the first regular meeting of the year in the Old Town Hall
with the newly-elected President,

Mrs. Nellie Crowley, in the chair.
The various Committees were formed and aides were appointed to attend the State Department meetings. Plans were made to hold a Whist Party in the Old Town Hall on Monday evening, January 30, at 8:00 o'clock. The public is invited.

THE NEWS
OBSERVES

There are quite a few protests being registered against putting out the street lights during certain hours in the early morning.

We notice an increase of late in improvement associations of one kind and another. The life of an organization depends upon its worth while accomplishments.
The public is looking on with interest.

It would strengthen the banks position in the minds of the public if frank explanations were given regarding the various service charges which the banks have been forced to put on. The public has a right to know.

The strength of a community lies in the number of resident property owners it contains. This being true, it is up to every factor that may be involved, to make property owning in that community attractive.

Business is set to go. The force of the economic depression is spent. The delay in recovery smells very strongly of politics.
Which party is responsible?

Received in our mail this week:

May we take this opportunity of thanking you for the space you have allowed us in your highly esteemed paper in the past and our deep appreciation of the same.—F. W. I.

There is every reason why we should Buy American. Go a step farther and Buy Arlington for in so doing you help your community and in turn strengthen your state. A better and busier Arlington is the first step you can take to assure a better and more prosperous America.

A local men's wear dealer is planning a sale. He wants the trade of the towns people but he gets an outsider to put on the sale, has outside printers to print his flier and does not use the local newspapers. If his method is superior to advertising in his home town newspaper we don't blame him, but we honestly believe he is making a mistake.

We are constantly urged by local merchants to promote trading at home. In order to do this effectively the local merchants must use the local newspapers for advertising as well as free publicity.

The marvelous economic and fiscal effects of beer have been pretty well discounted by now.

It's about time for all of us to realize that good old fashioned industry will do more to lift the depression than much of the political and academic counsel offered on all sides so freely.

By giving now to the Welfare Fund you provide your fellow human being with food, shelter, medical help—the bare necessities of living.

Series of "Book News And Readings" Is Proving Popular

The series of "Book News and Readings" which is given in the Robbins Library hall is proving not only interesting but instructive.

These events are under the sponsorship of the Civics and Education committee of the Arlington Woman's club of which Mrs. Herbert Stephens is chairman.

Mrs. Lucinda F. Spofford librarian at the Robbins Library, was the speaker at the first of these afternoons. Mrs. Spofford read from Ernest Poole's "Verses on Horseback" and also from "Footloose in India" by Gordon Sinclair. She also gave sketches of a number of other books and gave a list of books which will prove interesting. This list will appear in the Arlington Daily News at a later date.

Miss Margaret Roberts of the Health Department of the public schools gave a short talk.

The second in this series of book afternoons will be held on Monday in Robbins Library hall.
Mrs. Charles A. Hardy, a past president of the Arlington Woman's club will talk on "Novels to Read." Mrs. Marion E. Ford, supervisor of the Arlington public schools will be present and will tell of many phases of her work.

Tea will be served by members of the Civics and Education committee.

These afternoons are free to Women's club members. Admission is by ticket and these may be had from Mrs. Herbert Stephens, chairman of the sponsoring committee. Mrs. Stephens will be at the meeting of the Junior Garden club which will be held at Library hall this afternoon and will have tickets for those who will call for them between 4 and 5 o'clock.

The new ten thousand ton cruiser that is being built at

NATIONAL CASKETS

Former Local Girl Chosen As Miss Cambridge

With many notables in attendance, and before a crowd of several hundred persons, Miss Josephine Broome, formerly of Wyman street, Arlington, and now a resident of Cambridge, was selected "Miss Cambridge" for 1933 out of very large group of contestants at the third annual reunion and dance of the Willard Athletic Club of Cambridge, at Hobbs Auditorium, Davis sq., Somerville.

The "Miss Cambridge" contest was held during the intermission and the many contestants passed in review before the judges several times before the final choice was made. The committee of Judges consisted of Joseph D.
Callahan of The Boston Globe,
Chairman, assisted by Representatives Paul A. Dever and Charles C. Cavanaugh of Cambridge. Following Mr. Callahan's announcement that Miss Broome had been selected Representative Dever presented a handsome trophy to her on behalf of the club.

Miss Broome, who attended Arlington High until she moved to Cambridge, was congratulated and feted by a large gathering of friends at the home of Miss Claire Carr, Chilton street, Cambridge, shortly after she had been awarded the trophy.

Harry Tower of Arlington and Mildred Holmes of Cambridge were awarded a cash prize in the collegiate contest.

Among the invited guests attending the affair were State and City officials of many municipalities as well as several noted sport leaders and representatives of many athletic clubs and organizations.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of John Sheridan, Louis Reagan, Bennie E.
Alberico, Patrick Cloran, John
Delaney, Joseph Cleary, John

Arlington First
In The Sale Of Christmas Seals

The annual meeting of the South Middlesex association was held at North Reading State Sanitarium on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. R. W. Murphy chairman of the Tuberculosis Health Committee of the Arlington Welfare was unable to attend the meeting at Reading as she was ill.

Mrs. Roscoe Perry and Mrs.
Sprague attended the meeting,
latter being secretary of the Tuberculosis committee. The reports of sale of Christmas seals was read at this conference and Arlington was first on the list as having sold nearest her quota.

Boston was 20 per cent under her quota. The average for the towns of the rest of the country outside of Arlington was 12 per cent under.

The committee of Arlington feels very proud that Arlington is at the head of the list.

Part of our success was due to the efforts of some of the unemployed members. They delivered the seals to the homes without compensation, and were glad to do something to show their appreciation for the help that had been given them. In fact they helped in every way they could.

Now as Arlington leads the list for selling Christmas seals let's top the list for collection of Cl-quot Club caps. Put your shoulder to the wheel and keep it rolling.

Everything Set For Women's Democratic Club Meeting Wed.

The Arlington Woman's Democratic club will meet in Wyman's English tavern on Wednesday evening, January 25. Since this meeting is being held at the start of the forthcoming campaign, it will be of more than ordinary importance. Mrs. Elizabeth L. Mc-Namara, chairman of the Women's

Arlington
Team To Meet
Melrose High

A long time and bitter rivalry comes to a head tomorrow afternoon when a battered Arlington High Hockey team meets a clever and fast Melrose Hockey sextet at the Boston Garden.

Arlington has the poorest team this year that it has had in twelve years. The Red and Gray have managed to beat one team in Rindge who goes into the Garden to take a good beating every Saturday. Rindge has had stars like Johnson and Sarauksy whom they are sorely missing so that it was not much of a victory for Arlington.

Cambridge Latin and Stoneham have both beaten Arlington by substantial scores. Melrose is considered the class of the league with Belmont and a victory for Arlington would be a decided upset.

The battleship Arkansas has just completed twenty years service in the Navy. During that period she visited the following countries: Italy, Mexico, Cuba, Panama, Scotland, England,
Germany, France, Chile, Porto Rico, Holland, Gibraltar, Azores, Haiti, Spain, Norway, Denmark,
Nova Scotia, British Columbia and Hawaii. During the period, she cruised 357,894 miles.

ALLEN H. GLEASON DESCRIBES ENGLISH SCHOOL OVER RADIO

Allen H. Gleason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Gleason, of 40 Highland avenue, Arlington was the guest speaker at a recent radio broadcast sponsored by the Massachusetts D. A. R. over station WAAP, Boston.

Mr. Gleason spoke of his experiences as an exchange teacher at Westminster School, in London, England. Mr. Gleason is a member of the faculty at Kent School, Connecticut and the son of Mrs. Gleason, past regent of the D. A. R. Speaking of the Westminster School, Mr. Gleason said in his radio address:

"Westminster School in London is one of the oldest of the great English 'public schools,' much smaller than Eaton, Harrow, or Rugby, but with tradition going far back into the past. No one knows its actual origin, but probably some sort of instruction was provided by the monks of the original Westminster Abbey. Even today the connection of school and Abbey is carefully preserved, for the boys go to Abbey for morning prayers, and certain delegations are allowed to attend any service there, even including a coronation, on which occasion it is their ancient privilege to shout 'Hurrah' three times after the crown has been placed on the king's head.

"The real history of the school, however, dates from the time of Queen Elizabeth, who granted a sum of money for the education of forty boys, to be known as 'Queen's Scholars.' This scholarship is still in existence, and is most eagerly sought after, as it is distinction of no small merit. In accordance with her well-known admiration for classical learning, Queen Elizabeth specified that these scholars should perform a play in Latin once a year, and this interesting tradition also holds force today; for a Latin play, entirely spoken in Latin, which is attended by various dignitaries, the Dean of Westminster, the Bishop of London, and representatives of the royal family, is presented three times every December. These productions are given with much care for scenery and costumes, and are a unique survival of an ancient custom. There is an interesting reference to the Westminster play in 'Hamlet,' where Shakespeare speaks of 'an airy of children, little eyases, that cry out on top of question, and are most tyrannically clapped for it.'

"The passing of the years has caused many schools to move out of London, such as St. Paul's, Christ Hospital, and Charterhouse, but has left Westminster unchanged in its location. As I have said, the Abbey is their chapel, their assembly hall is the old monks' dormitory, the dining hall is the same refectory which was used by the monks a thousand years ago (it also has a typical Tudor minstrel's gallery and tables which tradition says were made for wood from ships that defeated the Spanish Armada). The library, Ashburnham House, is a good example of the work of Inigo Jones, and College, a boarding house, was designed by Christopher Wren.

"Of course no English school would be complete without some sort of recognized clothing, or uniform, for its boys. The Westminster boys wear top hats, cut-away coats, striped trousers, and black ties. The King's Scholars also wear a variety of cap and gown, as do all the masters. They must wear this costume at all recognized school functions except when they are engaged in sports; and at 'election time,' when the graduating class are about to leave for universities, they must wear full evening dress, with boutonnières of flowers, for three days before the actual graduation. Contrary to some opinions, they are not at all self-conscious about this formal dress, but take it all as a part of school life.

"The average English schoolboy has so much in common with our American type that it is difficult to establish many points of difference. Perhaps the one which impresses itself most strongly on the mind is the shyness and reserved manner with which they approach their elders. The reasons for this reticence are probably the home atmosphere, where the old maxim that children should be seen and not heard is still in force, and the fact that English boys are sent away to school at a much earlier age than our boys, where discipline is much more strict in the lower grades. Thus it seems that their disciplinary background is much stronger and more instinctive, also that they lack a freedom of expression and action to be found in the average American boy. All this, however, does not mean that they are not interested and curious about the affairs of the world, or that they cannot take part in conversation. The bright boy, I should think, has perhaps a more intelligent grasp of his studies and of world affairs than ours; certainly the English boy is further advanced in his comprehension of the classics and history, to name two outstanding examples. He is eager to know about the world in which he lives, like any normally intelligent boy, and especially is he eager to hear about

Edith Nourse Rogers Proves Vote-Getter

Compilation of statistics about the recent election has been completed by the national government. In the Massachusetts Congressional contests the figures show that 74,459 people indicated a desire to have Congressman Edith Nourse Rogers continue to serve them as the Fifth District representative at Washington. This is nearly 4500 more votes than were cast for any other candidate for Congress in the state, Republican or Democrat.

Arlington Locals

The C. E. Society of Arlington Heights Baptist church is making a drive for discarded usable clothes which will be sent to the Arlington Welfare, for distribution among the needy of the town. Your contribution will be greatly appreciated. This drive closes Jan. 29.

Arthur T. Rouse, of 111 Pleasant street, Arlington is rapidly recovering from a serious attack of pneumonia. He is on the road to recovery and is eager to see his many friends again.

The Thrift Shoppe, operated by the Welfare Council is still in business despite the fact that many people are under the impression that the shoppe is operated only during the Christmas season. As a matter of fact the shoppe closes only during summer months and is continuing to serve the public at the present. It is located opposite the Robbins Public library.

The Arlington police are still investigating the activities of prowlers reported in various sections of the town. Mrs. Fred Champelovier of 24 Richardson avenue reported yesterday that a man had been seen around her home during the past few nights. Similar reports have come to the police this week.

The Searchlight club will hold its annual political meeting at Robbins town hall Thursday, March 2 at 8 o'clock. All candidates for town office will speak.

Mrs. Oliver H. Perry has been elected president of the Clare Class of the First Baptist Church for the coming year. Other officers elected were Mrs. Thomas P. Bullock, vice president; Mrs. Frederick Bowen, secretary; Mrs. Roland Norton, treasurer; Mrs. Harrison Evans, program committee; Mrs. Fred S. Douglas, social committee, and Mrs. Nils Aasen, chairman of mailing committee.

A Junior Garden club has been started, sponsored by the Arlington Garden club, an auxiliary of the Woman's club. Mrs. Leroy Smith will direct the new organization. The club will be started with 10 members and will hold its first regular meeting tomorrow evening in the Junior Hall in Robbins Memorial Library.

A whist and bridge party was held under the auspices of the Altar Guild of St. Agnes' Church Wednesday afternoon in St. Agnes' School on Medford street. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Thomas D. Kennedy, Mrs. William D. Grannan, Mrs. Daniel F. Wade, Mrs. Francis Hyatt, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. John Lyons and Mrs. Francis B. Smith.

—Rev. John Nicol Mark will preach next Sunday at the First Parish on "The Social and Religious Implications of Technology."

—Sixty-five women of the Social Alliance of the First Parish attended the Bible Lecture given by Rev. John Nicol Mark last Monday morning. The talk on "How We Got Our Bible" was illustrated with forty-three colored slides and proved to be an interesting topic.

Vaillancourt's Market Reports Big Demand For Weekly Specials

Arlington housewives are fast becoming aware that the specials featured by Vaillancourt's Market of 200 Massachusetts avenue, East Arlington in every Friday's Daily News are really worthwhile. Mr. Vaillancourt reports that the number of demands for these weekly specials is increasing steadily and looks upon this as an indication that the wise housewife today pays more attention to the amount spent on foodstuffs and is seeking the best quality food at the lowest possible prices. Naturally, the Friday and Saturday specials at Vaillancourt's are proving extremely popular.

I hope and believe that the coming generation will also be served and helped through its problems by those who are now pursuing their education in England's great schools.

Mr. Gleason also spoke at a recent meeting of the Minute Men Chapter, D. A. R., in the Boston Y. M. C. A. He illustrated his talk there with some photographs and etchings given him by the faculty of the Westminster School.

Dr. C. H. Dempsey Speaks To Local Fortnightly Club

The second January meeting of the Arlington Fortnightly Club was held at the Robbins public library last Wednesday evening. After a short business meeting, Mrs. John J. Casey presented Dr. Clarence H. Dempsey, Superintendent of Arlington schools as guest speaker of the evening. He ably outlined the steadily decreasing school appropriations during the past three years while maintaining the full quota of curriculum subjects and activities, and ever increasing number of pupils. Dr. Dempsey emphasized the fundamentals to be:

Health improvement and preservation; character formation; adaptability of the preferred program to the individual need of the pupil; and guidance toward a successful vocation.

Resounding applause expressed the appreciation of the speaker's human and humorous presentation of the educational problems and possibilities of today.

A quartet of string instrumentalists offered a group of pleasing musical selections. The musicians were Philip Edwards, Audrey Lester, Phyllis Nelson and Purcell Lester, all students at the senior high school who are coached by Miss Charlotte Woods, a music supervisor. Flowers were presented to Mrs. Dempsey and candy to the youthful guest artists. Members and guests were received by Dr. and Mrs. Dempsey.

Nine first enlistments in the quota for this district during the month of January.

Radio Helps To Find Lost Child In Ten Minutes

The value of the radio broadcasting station now operated twenty-four hours of the day at Arlington police headquarters is now an established fact.

It was again demonstrated Wednesday that the use of radio by the police is most valuable. Mrs. John J. Coyne, of 82 Newport street notified the police that her four-year-old son Garr had been missing from his home since ten o'clock Wednesday morning. She gave Sergeant Jacobs, day desk-officer, a description of the child and this was immediately broadcast over Station WPEd.

All police scout cars picked up the message and the officers in the cruising cars were thus equipped with a good description of the lad. Ten minutes later, officer Lucarelli in one of the scout cars, picked up the child and returned Master Coyne to his anxious mother.

will be called for by the Welfare Council if necessary. These difficult times are bringing a lesson of unselfishness to us all and we are out to help our less fortunate neighbors in every way we can, and we know that all the boys and girls are going to work hard to collect Clitquot Club Bottle Caps. Everyone of you can do this and by so doing you will be quite surprised and very much pleased at the amount of money that will be given to the Arlington Welfare for the unemployed. Don't forget to save every Clitquot cap you can get and bring them to the fire stations.

We have not said a word to the adults about collecting caps but of course we feel sure they will do their part.

FAVORS BUS SERVICE INSTEAD OF STREET CARS ON MASS. AVE.

32 Swan place, Arlington, Mass.

Dear Sir:

I am writing again to you regarding the Boston Elevated traffic problem.

After reading thoroughly the article in the Friday issue of the Arlington Daily News, I am thoroughly convinced that the town can easily, save $3,000 for further study, by the following simple plan.

First—As Arlington already has a loop at Arlington Heights, I should think that the Elevated would be satisfied with having one loop in this city without trying to place two in this community.

Second—Street cars are out of date, out of style in our modern era, therefore I believe without a doubt that such transportation should be discarded, especially when a more rapid system of transportation to take its place is at our command. Bus transportation should be placed immediately on Massachusetts avenue.

Third—During rush hours there should be one bus running from Harvard square to Arlington with stops all the way. The following bus should be express to the first stop after the North Cambridge car barns. Buses run consecutively in this manner would prove satisfactory to Arlingtonians.

Fourth—Buses from Lechmere square, Harvard square, Teel square and Winchester square all could go to Arlington Heights when it becomes a bus terminal and not a loop for electric cars. In this manner persons coming from the Heights would not be required to pay 10 cents to go to Lechmere or any part of this route.

Fifth—Traffic conditions in the centre would in this manner be much less congested than they would be if there was a traffic loop in the centre.

Sixth—It would put an end to all our present traffic and transportation difficulties, but first we must have bus transportation on Massachusetts avenue, where the main majority of the people use for their means of rapid transportation. I am,

Yours truly and most sincerely,

J. A.

War Memorial
Displayed At Blake's

A model representing a proposed World War memorial to be erected in Arlington in the future is now attracting much attention. It is on display at Blake's Candy Shoppe in the Arcade Building, Massachusetts avenue, Arlington. The model stands about a foot high and is most interesting. This sketch was modeled by Paul V. Winters of 60 Mt. Vernon street. It is a figure of a marching doughboy with head erect and step firm, depicting the vision and determination of youth, inspired by patriotism as they went forth to their country's service.

Mr. Winters was graduated from the Arlington High School in 1925. He attended the Massachusetts School of Art for five years where he studied under Cyrus E. Dallin and Raymond A. Porter. He was assistant to his former teacher, Mr. Porter, on the Senator Lodge Memorial, now at the State House, the Leominster War Memorial and the Somerville Spanish War Memorial. Among his work is a bust of Dr. Serge Koussevitzky, conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, now in the Music Room of the Boston Public Library.

Local Program

We offer for your consideration and approval, the following outline of a general legislative program for local taxpayers' associations. Our survey of the situation has convinced us that this program points the way to the most substantial contribution which the Legislature can make to the cause of economy. We should appreciate a vote of approval by your association on all or any part of it. From time to time, we shall amplify it, by more specific and detailed proposals, but in its present form it serves as a general basis for action.

1. The 1933 state budget (to be financed from general revenue) should be balanced without increasing the state tax upon cities and towns, imposing new taxes or increasing the rates of existing taxes. To accomplish this, expenditures should be reduced to a minimum by salary reductions, curtailment or elimination of activities, etc.

2. Existing laws relating to city and town governments which obstruct retrenchment or make it difficult, should be suspended in 1933. In cases where these laws are ambiguous, they should be clarified in the interest of governmental economy.

3. State laws relating to budget procedure in cities and towns should be amended to permit certain transfers during the year, to require in the budget current estimates of receipts and to restrict supplementary appropriations.

4. Cities and towns can and should rely upon economies in their expenditures to reduce their property taxes and to compensate for reductions in other tax revenues. New or increased taxes for distribution to cities and towns should not be imposed upon citizens or business enterprises who, in one form or another, are now taxed far in excess of what they can afford.

5. The proceeds of the existing gasoline tax and other revenues going into the State Highway Fund should be reallocated by distributing larger shares to cities and towns for highway purposes, and by curtailing highway construction by or under the direction of the state.

6. Bond issues for public works should not be incurred by the State government or by cities and towns, except in emergencies; and under no conditions should legislative authority to borrow outside the debt limit be granted to cities and towns in 1933.

Several Legislative Bills for salary reductions in the state service have been introduced. The Joint Ways and Means Committee will hold a hearing in the near future on these bills. We urge you to be represented at this hearing in support of these bills.

We shall notify you as soon as a definite date has been set. The presence at this hearing of a delegation from your association would be extremely helpful. Public opinion is unquestionably behind them, but tangible evidence to that effect is needed. Favorable action upon them is imperative to a proper balancing of the state budget in 1933. The facts, briefly stated, are as follows:

In 1932, appropriations for state departments to be financed from "general revenue" totaled $41,925,000. It was estimated that taxes, fees, etc., would produce $32,175,000, and the balance of $9,750,000 formed the state debt, which was assessed upon towns and cities and found their way into the property tax.

For 1933, it is expected that taxes, fees, etc., will not bring in more than $27,000,000. This will "unbalance" the state budget by about $5,000,000. How will that gap of $5,000,000 be closed? Either appropriations must be reduced, new taxes must be found, or the state tax assessment must be increased.

As a local taxpayers' Association, you have a very definite interest in this problem. An increase in the state tax upon your city or town in 1933 would be extremely unfortunate. New taxes in any form are equally objectionable, for over one-third of the public income is now going to pay taxes. The obvious thing to do is to concentrate on the "outgo" side of the state's accounts, and to reduce appropriations.

Must Cut Salaries

For the last three years, the salary scale in the state government has not been reduced in any way. The public cannot afford to continue to pay prosperity-time salaries for a fourth year, and in all fairness, it should not be required to do so.

The Navy's nine electrical driven battleships use enough electrical power to furnish heat, light and power for 9,000,000 people.

Local Boy Takes
West Point Exam

Herman Nickerson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nickerson of 184 Appleton street, Arlington Heights, was among the twenty-seven youths who took Senator Marcus A. Coolidge's examination for West Point last Saturday. The examination was held in the Custom House, Boston.

Young Nickerson is very popular locally. He graduated from Arlington High School and then enrolled at Boston University, College of Business Administration where he is now a sophomore.

Heights Baptist To Launch Novel Plan
To Pay Off Debt

The Arlington Heights Baptist Church has launched a unique plan by which to pay off the mortgage indebtedness of the church within the current year.

Sixteen teams have been selected with a captain for each team and named after the tribes of Israel which came up out of Egypt to the Promised Land.

On Sunday, Jan. 22 the church will present to each member of each team a talent (a new one dollar bill), and before the end of the year each one hopes to become a ten talent man or two man. The talents can be multiplied only by individual effort, and in one of two ways; either as the result of some unaccustomed sacrifice or through some creative activity in which the talent is invested in some productive enterprise.

On the evening of Dec. 31, 1933 the church will give a banquet at which each member will bring in his talents with reports on how they were multiplied, and the Captains of all the tribes which reach the Promised Land—that is, which bring in $100 in their Talent Envelopes—will have the privilege of lighting some part of the mortgage to be burned at that time.

The names of the teams with the Captains of each follow:

Reuben—Captain Viola Michaels.

Simeon—Captain Mrs. Dora Goodwin.

Levi—Captain Mrs. Mary B. Brine.

Judah—Captain Mr. George Stevens.

Zachariah—Captain Mr. William Dutton.

Issachar—Captain Mrs. Emma Wamaker.

Dan—Captain Mr. Chester Gott.

Gad—Captain Mr. Roy Richardson.

Asher—Captain Mr. Joseph Ohlund.

Naphtali—Captain Mr. Robert Maxham.

Ephraim—Captain Mr. Bursie Prest.

Manasseh—Captain Mrs. Helen MacIver.

Benjamin—Captain Mr. Humbert Beckett.

Gershon—Captain Mr. Clinton Gray.

Kohath—Captain Miss Ruth Freeman.

Merari—Captain Mrs. Inez Hovey.

Traveling Studio Equipped With
Exide Products

A traveling motion picture studio completely equipped for making and projecting talking films was exhibited Wednesday at the Capitol Theatre. In addition, screen tests were made of young women of the town with the object of eventually picking out promising screen material for 1933.

The tour of the traveling studio is being undertaken by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer motion picture interests with the cooperation of the manufacturers of Exide batteries and other producers of equipment used in the studio, according to Leonard Roberts of the Colonial Garage, the local Exide dealer.

The front of the studio contains a soundproof room in which voice and camera tests were made. At the back are the screen and projection booth, the latter enclosed in glass so that spectators may observe the operations inside. A microphone located within the booth and adjusted to speakers enables the demonstrator to explain the details of production.

The screen covers the back of the studio. To the onlookers gathered about the rear of the studio, automobiles were shown a special program of short subjects, embracing a trip through the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios in California, a visit to the Hal Roach studios, a goodwill talk by Will Hays and subjects of an educational nature.

Every large American city will be visited by the studio. Then it will be shipped to Europe, Australia, South America and the Far East for a tour that will include thirty-three countries. The company plans to test thousands of girls throughout the country.

ARLINGTON-LEXINGTON
BASKETBALL GAME
ENDS IN HECTIC RIOT

Milling about on the Junior High East basketball floor, close to a hundred fans took part in a hectic riot which brought an abrupt close to the Arlington A. A.—Lexington Minute Boys game Wednesday night.

Lexington was credited with starting the riot although local fans certainly entered the melee with gusto. Not until Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock was called in did the riot subside.

With his arrival on the scene, the rioters dispersed and the evening's battle was called to a halt. Chief Bullock happened to be attending a meeting of the Menomony Improvement association in the school auditorium, in another part of the building, and was quickly on the scene.

The game was the first for the Arlington A. A. in the Paul Revere league. Lexington was leading 24 to 24 when the riot started in a late stage of the game. The Arlington team was fast creeping up to the Minute Boys when the players got suddenly "hot under the collar" and started to riot.

Fists flew and a grand battle ensued. There were no serious injuries nor any arrests when an inventory was taken. Calucci was the outstanding local player as far as basketball was concerned. In the rioting, it was about even all around and no one man was outstanding.

Charles Crocco, manager of the Arlington A. A. team which has already met some of the best teams in Greater Boston in independent games this year—and won all games—was highly indignant at the poor sportsmanship displayed by Lexington and stated Wednesday that the Arlington team would probably withdraw from the Paul Revere league.

POET'S CORNER

There is a lively interest in establishing a poets corner in the Arlington Daily News. In response to this interest, the editor expresses a desire for contributions. They will appear in the near future.

HOME

By H. M. C.
Oft our thoughts will turn to the home,
Conditions differ in each one.
If it's near or far we may roam,
Glowing thoughts shine as does the sun.

Be it a mansion or humble hut,
Its influence tells, and guides us e'er.

There, from the outside world
we are shut—Enjoying each pleasure, suffering
each care.

A loving thought we'll surely find,
Kindly words and acts which mean so much—
The family securely does us bind
To "home, sweet home," for it is such.

Calvary Methodist Church Program

Sunday Morning Worship at 10.45. There will be music by the Calvary Church Choir. By request Dr. Shaw will give an address on "When Men Meet Jesus". Cordial invitation is extended to all, especially to those who do not have a church home.

At the evening service held at 7 o'clock there will be an illustrated presentation of "The Shepherd of the Hills", a drama that has gripped the hearts of millions of people in our land, one that will carry a much appreciated lesson to us.

The evangelistic song service feature of the Evening is very helpful and inspiring. Songs new and old are featured each Sunday night. Come and get acquainted.

Wednesday evening the Men's Class will present a play and entertainment. The play is "Saving Day". Miss Ruth Campbell, a reader, Paul Ween and Carl Sonelson, soloists, will make an evening of splendid entertainment. We hope everyone will help make this an outstanding success.

The Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. E. A. Bradford on Thursday afternoon and Mrs. H. L. Crowley will be the guest speaker at 2 p. m.

On Saturday evening the Paquinose Club will serve a baked bean supper.

Arlington — Sport — Lights

— By BOB FOREST —

The Arlington High basketball team has yet to prove that it has a fair basketball team. The locals have won one game and lost one of the three which we expected to prove test games. The third game will be played tonight in the High School Gym.

They lost the Chelsea game by one point and only won the Belmont game by four points. The Belmont game was almost the heart-breaker as Arlington had the best of the game most all the way, but lucky baskets by the Belmont team almost gave them a victory.

We failed to pick that Sonnenberg-Deglane bout. That is the second time that we have picked that bout wrong and it began to look like that match wasn't really in the well known bag, because if it was Sonnenberg was due to win.

The Arlington A. A. war is still on. We established with the help of Mr. Rugg last week the origin of the A. A. way back many years ago. We were informed by a highly indignant member of the Arlington A. A. of the Heights who are trying to take the A. A. away from Charlie Crocco, that the name has been registered.

They have succeeded in doing this very well because they have registered the name and thus have the sole use of the name. But we think that they have made a slight mistake. They have registered under the Arlington Athletic Association. There is nothing to stop Charlie Crocco from registering under the Arlington Athletic Alumni and thus keeping his A. A.

Percy Goodale, fair haired boy from the hill overlooking the Mystic Lakes, is at present on the Browne and Nichols eight oared varsity crew. He is slated to lose his job though as he has developed a little too much weight and is to be replaced by a smaller man.

The second team game at Belmont amounted to nothing but a force. The Arlington team won easily but the score would have been much larger had not the referee such a quick whistle. On a count in the last period he blew his whistle just fifty-two times by actual count. That is about two hundred and eight times in one game. Right you are. The game was terrible to watch.

The referee in the first team game was the poorest we have seen in a long while. He had Rae Serretta and Paul Hendricks both tossed out for fouls. Both these boys are fairly calm in a game and are never ejected, but the referee thought that they were the kings plus and that Belmont would probably win if they were out as it was the winning points were scored by Hendrick's substitutes, Hamilton.

A battle royal it was! When Crocco had his usual game at the Junior High East it was with the Lexington Minute Boys, that pugilistic scrapping crew from up in the woods. They are always looking for a scrap which they usually find in Arlington.

The Minute Boys have been banned from playing games in certain surrounding towns because of their unsportsmanlike conduct. It would be a good idea for this town to join the boycotters, until they are able to take a beating without starting trouble.

But getting back to the jam. It was a peach. It started by general leg tripping on the part of both teams, but Lexington soon got tired of this horse play and raised their hands. Bobbie Winn on the A. A. let McFee of Lexington have his fist right on the snout, and about four Lexington men piled on him. The spectators, players, officials and janitors all joined the melee and it was grand and glorious for about ten minutes, and broke up with the usual taunting and sizzling.

Ralph Haskell from up in the Heights is wrestling at Brown and Nichols. He takes them in any class. He is well built for a wrestler, being about two hundred pounds and quite round. He also is the goalie on the hockey team when they play.

Arlington tackles Melrose tomorrow afternoon at the Garden and it will be sad for the Arlington team. But regardless of the odds, we are picking Arlington to take Melrose into camp. Why? We don't know. How? We don't know, but there it is.

True to our predictions Belmont is sweeping the league. They have a clear field in front of them now with the leaders out of the way. Arlington, Stoneham, Rindge, will offer little or no opposition.

A basketball tournament is to be run in the Junior High East for the town championships of the different classes early in March. Teams interested in playing in the tournament leave your name at the News Office and it will be taken care of.

SONS OF ITALY LODGE MARKS 8th BIRTHDAY

One of the most elaborate programs ever presented at a meeting of Arlington Lodge, Sons of Italy, was enjoyed last Sunday when the lodge held special exercises in G. A. R. hall commemorating the eighth anniversary of the organization.

Invited guest, District Deputy Ernest Martini, alderman from Medford, spoke of the contributions of the Order to the country of better understanding and better American citizenry. Professor Felix Forti of Boston University also spoke on the life of two Italians, one being William Paca, of Maryland, signer of the Declaration of Independence and the other Colonel Francesco Vigo, responsible for opening the West of the United States due to his financial contribution which resulted in the Americans taking the fort at Vincennes, Indiana away from the British.

John Francis Paramino, sculptor of Arlington, also a guest, received a gift from the members of the lodge presented by ex-Venerable, R. D. Guarante, in esteem for his masterpiece of the Bas relief of Columbus which was dedicated at the High school, Columbus Day. Michael A. Fredo, member of Arlington lodge, assistant Grand Venerable of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, represented the Grand Council and brought the greetings of the Grand Lodge.

After the meeting the members and their guests retired to the lower hall where a luncheon was served and music was furnished by an orchestra.

The committee in charge of the affair was: ex-Venerable Frank Tortorelli Joseph Dente, Ludovico

De Cane, Beniamino Santosuosso and Frank S. Guarante.

The affair was concluded by a recitation of the Third Canto of the Divine Comedy by Joseph Campobasso which every one enjoyed. Frank Lo Presti presided.

TOWER MOTHERS' CLUB

The Tower Mothers' club will hold its next meeting on Monday evening with Mrs. T. M. Mott, 28 Puritan road, Arlington as hostess.

The subject of the meeting will be "Discipline" with Mrs. R. E. Sheppard as leader.

In 1776 a seaman received eight dollars a month and the Commander in Chief of the Navy received one hundred and twenty five dollars, plus rations and a certain percentage of prize money.

"BUY AMERICAN!"

FORTY foreign nations now off the gold standard are producing their goods on a cost basis of money worth 10% to 50% less than ours and we're paying for them with good, honest American money worth 100 cents on the dollar. 43% of our imports are from these countries . . . 60% of them come in free of duty. American producers cannot compete . . . cannot survive such competition . . . cannot employ American workmen nor pay an honest wage under such conditions.

The situation is becoming more desperate every day . . . so desperate that there is only one way to stifle such competition . . . only one way to protect American industry . . . only one way to preserve American employment and standard of wages. Patriotism, as well as our commercial security makes that way imperative now. That way is to

NEWS OF ARLINGTON GIRL SCOUT TROOPS

Troop 13—The members of the court of honor, captain Towne, lieutenant North, patrol leaders Margaret Eugene, Faith Freeman and Louise Lester met at a supper on Wednesday evening to discuss and make plans for the troop program.

An overnight hike will be held Friday (tonight) to Cedar Hill where supper will be cooked at the camp house, campfire will be held out of doors if the weather permits, and the night spent at the Rookery. Saturday morning breakfast will be cooked out of doors at the camp. Those going will leave headquarters, at 4 returning tomorrow afternoon. Beginning next week troop meetings will be held in the Robbins Memorial Library hall from 7 to 8:30.

Troop 6—The first formal meeting of 1933 was conducted Tuesday evening. Following the color ceremony inspection was held. Games, singing "with scissors and paper" and taps followed the program. Flag history was reviewed through games.

Troop six is very glad to welcome a new Scout to the ranks, Mary Good, cousin of Mary MacGillivray.

At the patrol leaders' meeting plans were discussed and suggestions made for a means of increasing a fast diminishing treasury.

Next week "SEALED ORDERS" at 7:15 sharp.

In all Arlington Troops, one meeting in January and February is being given over to some form of community service, particularly Needlework Guild garments and Red Cross sewing. Troops 2, 9, 10 and 13 have registered to date.

Following is the list of delegate from the troops to the 1933 Metropolitan Girls' Conference: troop 1 Sally Peck; troop 2 Ruth Wellington; troop 3 Phyllis Smilie; troop 4 Lonnie Kyle; troop 5 Myrtle Peirce; troop 6 Ruth Bowser; troop 7 Evelyn Meyer; troop 8 Phyllis Cowdry; troop 9 Catherine Eugene; troop 10 Lois Hutchinson (registered in troop 9); troop 13 Hope Wells. These girls will report back to the troops and one will be chosen to report to the local council and one to the leaders' Association.

The Arlington CS Bugle and Drum Corps has been invited to play at the Conference. This is a signal honor, only one outstanding corps being asked each year.

The regular monthly meeting of the council will be held Wednesday at 2.

All the Scouts regret very much the "break" at their Commissioner, Mrs. Kidder and wish for a speedy recovery.

The Child Nurse and Home Nurse courses will be given by Mrs. Trowbridge at headquarters on Wednesday at 4. First Aid will be given by Miss Fendall at the Visiting Nurses' Rooms on Thursday at 4.

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY" is the greeting on the State Review programs now being distributed. Rehearsals for the Arlington episode will begin as soon as the necessary ice appears.

Winter Camping blanks for Saturday Feb. 4th will be printed next week. Miss Dorothy Sanborn of Needham and former pioneer counselor at Four Winds and Stamford, Conn., camps will give a course in pioneering for troop 6 girls and senior scouts from Somerville beginning Saturday Jan. 21. Requirements for registration etc., will be the same as for the regular winter day trips.

On Monday, January 30, an all day conference for camp counselors, camp directors and camp committee members and council members is to be held at the Hotel Westminster, Boston. Please save the date.

Troop 10 has entered the bush growing contest one hundred per cent. They have also begun at once the Needlework Guild work and have voted to follow this up with the annual play.

Thursday afternoon, two of the girls, Helen Richardson and Barbara Higgins with Captain MacKusick took care of the preschool children at the Brackett School during the Parent-Teacher's Association meeting.

Troop 11—Due to the absence of Captain Bond who is sick with grippe, a substitute took her place at the meeting. Recorder Cutter has also been ill for two weeks.

Troop 5—A First Aid class has now started on Mondays with Miss Vandell at the Visiting Nurses' Association. Home Nurse and Child Nurse with Mrs. Trowbridge is being held on Wednesday.

Troop 8—A large group from Troop 8 has started Home Nurse with Mrs. William Gleason with girls from Troops 1 and 7 on Tuesdays. Troop 8 has also started a Housekeeper class with Mrs. Komenda and Captain Hoffmann has a large group of native workers. Ten pots of bulbs, daffodils, hyacinths and tulips have been distributed for the Troop Flower Show on Saturday some of the girls are planning a trip to Cedar Hill.

Troop 3—Lieutenant Alice Frost is leaving for Florida today but will be back in a few weeks.

Troop 2—Mrs. Robert Ladd started a class in Housekeeper today and Captain Shaw one in 2nd class Nature. Evelyn Wiglen was invested as a second class Scout.

Troop 9 opened its meeting with the customary game. "Up and Down" Relay was played this week.

Four new Patrol Leaders and Seconds were chosen. They are: Barbara Swanson, P. L., June Ogden Second, Dorothea Haubner P. L., Mary Ogden Second, Lois Hutchinson P. L., Grace Hawkins Second, Catherine Eugene P. L., Lorraine Smilie Second.

Patrol 2 composed of Mable Avery, Martha Burns, Dorothea Haubner, Grace Higgins, Ella MacKenzie, Helen Mullins, Mary Ogden, Lois Whitman, Elsa Ryberg and Arline Stone dramatized the second Girl Scout Law, "A Girl Scout is Loyal."

We were glad to have the Daffodil and Hyacinth bulbs ready for the 15 scouts who are going to develop the plants for exhibition in the flower show this spring.

Grace Higgins passed "Compass"; Lois Whitman passed Table Setting and Observer. June Ogden and Mabel Avery passed "Health."

Signalling games for 2nd Class scouts are planned for next week. The hike to Cedar Hill last Saturday was a great success. After building a fire in the Arlington Camp and cooking "Angels on Horseback" and toasting wienies, games were played indoors. Instruction on fire building and fire prevention were given. Humar croquet and Tag-n-r the Snake were played out of doors and a visit to the "Mox" ended a happy afternoon.

Arlington Kiwanis Activities
1925 1933
Meets Thursdays, 12.15 P. M. at Wyman's

This week's meeting turned out to be a Birthday party. "Kiwanis International" is 18 years old this week, and maybe our committee didn't do things in a big way.

Paper hats, favors, noisemakers, not to forget the cake which Franklin fixed up a little nicer, if that is possible.

F. B. contributed many appropriate remarks relative to anniversary week and topped off by reading International President Carl E. Endicott's 1933 message which is as follows:

Time marches on and the curtain of December thirty-first closes the show. . . . Another year takes its proper place in the hectic history of the past. . . . Nineteen thirty-two is just a snapshot in our book of memory.

Hunger and hard times have torn at the vitals of a billion human beings. . . . Tears have streaked the cheeks of children tugging at the skirts of weary and almost hopeless women. . . . White collars have wilted to sickly yellow that has gone streaming down spines.

Business is propped up in bed, nursing a hangover head. . . . Forgotten are our boasts of big business. . . . Frenzied financiers floundering themselves flat tires on the highway of life, have sought an avenue of escape via ship or shot, leaving behind the wrecked hopes of a trusting humanity in the ditches of despair.

A New Year. . . . Yes, generations and generations of New Years ahead. This year is one of hope. . . . one of opportunity. . . . one of greatest possibilities.

We have just closed the old year with celebration and memory of that time two thousand years ago. . . . There men journeyed toward a star, with hopes in their hearts of finding a Savior of humanity.

They found him in a lowly manger. . . . Can it be that He is the forgotten man? . . . Is it possible that we forgot Him too often last year. . . . And the year before that. . . . And the other years of the past?

Kiwanians remembers. . . . And that age-old spirit of service is the basis of my message to Kiwanians everywhere on the sunrise of this year. . . . Our eighteenth anniversary.

Jack O'Leary, chairman of the underprivileged child committee made his report, telling of the number of children the club was furnishing transportation for, to and from school, and explained the details of this all-important work.

On a motion of Chet Whitman which was unanimously voted by the club, the house committee was instructed to procure a mourning streamer to be placed upon our flag staff for 30 days in commemoration of the death of ex-president Calvin Coolidge, this being in conformity with President Hoover's proclamation.

Heard at the Meeting
This is a "FINE" club says Warren Guild as F. P. imposes a ten cent FINE, then makes it twenty as Warren tries to excuse himself and then has to pay Jim Keane a quarter as Jim had no change.

Walter Chamberlain, our silver tongued tenor is letting himself in for something by requesting more up to date music. You'll get it Walter and as for thanks, just "say it with song."

Will Ray Mauger and Mervin Brown please get together and produce a joke-book?

What was that the boys kept calling Maurice Hatch today? Past President Spin started it and the only way to stop it Maurice is to make a speech.

NO FLU EPIDEMIC HERE AND HERE'S HOW TO AVOID ONE

There is no influenza epidemic in Arlington. Although there is an unusually large number of colds here, the information from the Board of Health office reveals that only a few cases of the grippe have been reported and no cases of influenza have come to the Board's attention.

However, it might be a wise policy to avoid colds and thereby prevent an epidemic. Here's the lowdown on influenza, as given by Dr. George H. Biglow, Commissioner of Public Health.

Before 1918 it was a rather genteel term for mild disability. Since 1918 it has meant to all of us an acute, wide and rapidly spread respiratory infection featured dramatically by a high incidence of complicating pneumonia which was the death dealing aspect of the disease. Also a feature of this pneumonia was the speed with which it killed. In those days those who did not die were astonished by the degree and duration of the prostration which followed the disease. Then, to all of us influenza means now not a genteel disability but a severe disease complicated by a rapidly killing pneumonia.

Across the country has spread a mild respiratory disease giving fever for two or three days with some short-term intestinal upsets in some cases confused with food poisoning, and followed by a mild prostration. This disease might certainly better be called a severe cold or grippé as we use the English language than influenza. Our industrial reports from all over the State show no increase in this type of disease as yet although from other sources there is evidence that it has appeared in certain sections of the State.

To avoid getting the disease one should avoid crowds which is frequently impossible since civilization is apparently inevitable. To avoid serious complications which this mild disease apparently does not have anyway it is well to go to bed and stay there as long as you have a fever. An advantage in having you stay in bed is that you don't spread it to others. All this is just as good advice if you have a severe cold.

There is a prevalence of grippé rather higher than we expected so early in the winter but that there is no influenza.

Grippé, like the common cold, is spread by the nose and mouth secretions of one person reaching the nose and mouth of another.

This happens when a fine spray of saliva is thrown off as in talking, laughing, coughing and sneezing.

The usual symptoms are: inflamed and watery eyes, discharging nose, headache, muscular pain and fever.

Follow these rules to avoid the flu:

1. Sleep well, eat wisely, drink water freely, get plenty of exercise in the fresh air and sunshine.
2. Keep clean—wash hands before eating or handling food.
3. Keep an even temperature in the home.
4. Avoid crowds when possible.
5. The disease is most communicable during the first 48 hours. If your temperature is over 99, go to bed and call a doctor. Don't try to "work off the cold."

ARLINGTON PROPERTY TO BE RE-ASSESSED BY OUTSIDER; RUMOR

That an article may be inserted in the Town Warrant for the annual town meeting next March asking that money be appropriated to bring an appraiser from outside to re-assess property in Arlington is being rumored about.

It is understood that a large number of tax-payers are incensed over alleged unfair valuation of property in this town and will take this step at the next Town meeting in the hope that certain property owned by a certain few people of the town might be assessed higher to bring it more equally to the real value of the property.

Those who are planning to insert the article claim that large lots of woodland which are listed merely as "woodland" are being developed and really worth far more than what they are assessed for. It is also claimed that valuable business property in Arlington is assessed far below its real value.

At the Assessors' office yesterday afternoon it was stated that the Board of Assessors had heard nothing of the proposed move.

It is claimed that if certain local property were assessed its real value and taxed accordingly it would not be necessary to ask town employees to give a voluntary contribution of ten percent from their salaries this year. Nor would it be necessary to cut all departmental budgets at least ten percent.

Whether the proposed article will be inserted in the town warrant now remains to be seen. The "cry" is nothing new since it has been heard for years from taxpayers who feel that their own property is assessed too high.

The Class is increasing in popularity and any Arlington young man who wishes to join this interesting group is most welcome to do so.

According to Professor Zechariah Chafee of Harvard Law School there is no one particular undergraduate course necessarily prerequisite to the study of law. It is his belief though that courses in English, Government, History and Economics would be profitable.

In contrast to the medical schools which may designate required courses for entry, law schools find it hard to demarcate a group of college subjects obviously prerequisite for law students. Two points generally agreed on by most law teachers: First, that courses of a legal nature like constitutional law and jurisprudence are good for laymen, but should be avoided by a future lawyer, because he will cover these fields much more fully in his law school and had better spend his time in college on matters that do not overlap his legal curriculum. Secondly a thorough training in expressing the ideas in the English language is indispensable.

"Aside from that," says Prof. Chafee, there is no single pre-law curriculum for anyone. The contacts of the law are so numerous, that any one of a large number of fields of knowledge will prove related to it, and the years before law-school may best be devoted to studying the subjects which the undergraduate himself finds most responsive to his own aptitudes and his own interests in life at large.

"No law student, however, can afford to be wholly ignorant of economics, political science, psychology, the methods of natural sciences, or English and American history. But it is a superstition all too prevalent to suppose that it is necessary to take a course in a subject in order to know something about it. A chief count in the indictment of college education is that it fails to develop a desire for reading books in fields outside of courses. Instead of requiring pre-law courses, a law school might prepare a list of recommended books in the fields previously described as essential. These books should be both interesting and important. If every law student, prospective or actual, were advised to read them, the professor of law would find in his men that common background which is so desirable.

Professor Chafee goes on to name the list of books that seems most important to him. His list is of especial interest in that it is not merely suitable for those interested in the study of law, but gives to one who has read the books included in it, a broad general knowledge of the subjects mentioned above.

The list is as follows: Wallis' Human Nature in Politics, and The Great Society; Pickwick Papers, and Bleak House; William James' Psychology, and Pragmatism; Sumner's Folkways; Valley-Radot's Life of Pasteur; The Autobiography of Darwin, and the chapter of reminiscences in his Life and Letters; Lord Acton's Lectures on the French Revolution; Green's Short History of the English People; Haldane's Autobiography; Cardozo, Nature of the Judicial Process; Trollope, Orley Farm; Hart H. C. The Psychology of Insanity; Beard, The Rise of American Civilization; Beveridge, The Life of Marshall.

Churches Of Christ Scientist Sermon For Next Sunday

"Truth" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Church of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 22.

The Golden Text is: "I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations. For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds" (Psalms 67:9,10).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:31, 32).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The best sermon ever preached is Truth practiced and demonstrated by the destruction of sin, sickness, and death. Truth makes a new creature, in whom old things pass away and 'all things are become new.' Passions, selfishness, False appetites, hatred, fear, all sensuality, yield to spirituality, and the superabundance of being is on the side of God, good" (p. 201).
